

Children’s Happy Faces Foundation Hosts 8th Annual Casino Night Benefiting Ronald McDonald House New York

A diverse group of industry leaders gathered at Fino Wall Street Restaurant for another unforgettable evening in support of the Ronald McDonald House New York. Guests enjoyed an evening of games by Team Unity featuring Kevin Graham as pit boss, with entertainment by The Diva Jazz Orchestra, DJ Franco, massages by Oasis Day Spa, cigars by General Cigar Co., a special appearance by Tiny Roberson of East Tennessee Distillery and a Goldman Special Texas Hold 'em Tournament lead by poker chair Jordan Goldman.

“We had a terrific turnout for this year’s Casino Night and we thank the many friends and business associates who have helped bring this event to a new level,” said David Lipson, founding member of Children’s Happy Faces Foundation. “Nearly $70,000 was raised in direct support of the programs at Ronald McDonald House New York for the families and their children battling pediatric cancer.”

Among the major supporters were Century Management, Bargold Storage, Daniels Norelli Cecere & Tavel, Hercules Corp., Lucas & Bols, Phase 3, Brietman Family Foundation, and The Scharfman 2015 Charitable Trust, Assured Environments, McFar Contractors LTD, Etna Contracting and the New York Yankees.

Kevin Foster and Rick Martin of Ronald McDonald House New York

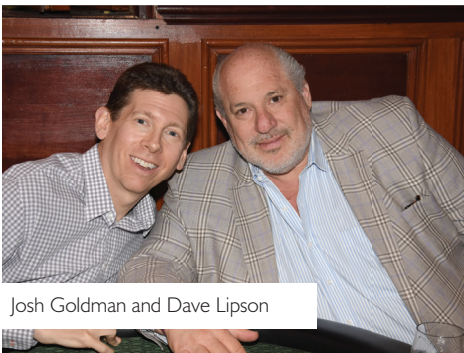

Rob Cecere, Dave Lipson and Rick Martin

Jerome Kelton, Shirley Jacobs and Dave Lipson

Nick Odoardi, Tiny Roberson and Annabella Lipson

Josh Goldman and Dave Lipson

Brett Dunne and Rob Cecere

Century Management's Communication Team: Edwin Rivas, Natalia Kowal and Cinthya Matute

Fernando Salgado, Kris Popov and Ilya Kosilov

DJ Franco, Joe Carcappa, Rob Cecere and Seam Cszar

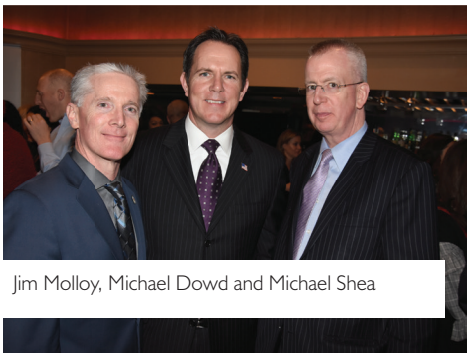

Jack Palmieri and Tony Ordas

Dave Lipson and Melissa Pellettieri

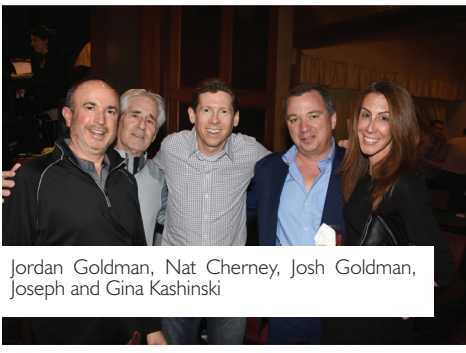

Denise Apostle and Melisa Vlasaty

Jim Molloy, Michael Dowd and Michael Shea

Julia Kodis, Susan Pryce, Penny Mendelsohn and Jeff Herkovitz

Jordan Goldman, Nat Cherney, Josh Goldman, Joseph and Gina Kashinski